

Group Work: Subject/Verb Agreement

For this assignment, get into your normal groups of 2-4. Choose which form of the verb corresponds to the sentence. Remember to consider the tense involved in the sentence. Work on this for about 10 minutes and we will go over it as a group.

1. Both Alexis and Kate believe/believes Patrick is cute.
2. Attitudes toward responsibility, obviously, vary/varies.
3. People who work on it every day know/knows how the program works.
4. Everything coming out of the committee are/is becoming upsetting to hear.
5. Rules and regulations provides/provide structure for the children's game.

...and now a little bit of supplemental refresher:

Choose the correct pronoun

6. Is she going to send him and me/I to the game?
7. She is going to visit whoever/whomever is living closest to her when she goes to college.

Pick the most appropriate form of punctuation for each sentence:

8. The Patriots had only one choice _____ bench their struggling quarterback.
9. Chelsea approached Jennifer in the library and asked the question on her mind _____
"will you go out with me?"
